2024: “Standing Up For Freedom & Democracy”

The mission of the Clovis Veterans Memorial District (CVMD) is to provide a permanent living memorial honoring U.S. Military and Veterans; provide facilities and support programs to promote a legacy of service for preserving our community's and country's foundational ideals. Veterans Day is an opportunity to honor and give thanks to those who have served or are serving in the military, those who preserve the American way of life.

The resources included in this Teacher's Guide can be used to talk to your class about the history of Veterans Day and introduce them to this year's theme: “Standing Up for Freedom & Democracy.”

History of Veterans Day:

Veterans Day is held on November 11th, which began as a celebration of peace after World War I ended. It was originally called Armistice Day, to celebrate the truce signed between America and Germany during World War I. In 1954 the name was changed to Veterans Day, to honor all veterans.

What is a freedom and democracy?

Freedom is the power or right to act, speak, or think as one wants. Democracy is a system of government by the whole population or all eligible members of the state, typically through elected representatives. The United States is a representative democracy. This means that our government is elected by citizens. These officials represent the citizens' ideas and concerns in government.

How is the history of democracy in the United States and why does it matter?

America was not always a separate country; it used to be 13 colonies ruled by the King of England. The people living in these colonies were unhappy because the King was taxing them and imposing rules without giving them a say in the decisions. On July 4, 1776, the colonists signed the Declaration of Independence, declaring their freedom from England and establishing the United States of America. Democracy means that everyone has a voice in deciding what to do together as a community. In a democracy, people have the freedom to choose their leaders and the rules they live by. This means that they can help shape their communities and countries to make them a better place by voting and participating in local government.

How can you stand up for freedom and democracy?

First, you must understand the rights and responsibilities that come with living in a free nation under a representative democracy. Basic freedoms include freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom from want and freedom from fear. The responsibility of those freedoms is that you must be an informed and engaged citizen- participate in elections, attend civic events, model democratic behavior, and think critically about how you can make your country and community better.
