

VETERANS DAY

STUDENT ART CONTEST ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

STANDING UP FOR FREEDOM & DEMOCRACY

The Mission of the Clovis Veterans Memorial District is to provide a permanent living memorial honoring U.S. Military and Veterans; provide facilities and support programs to promote a legacy of service for preserving our community's and country's foundational ideals.

Elementary school students are invited to create and submit an illustration/drawing around the theme: "Standing Up For Freedom & Democracy."

In writing your essay, consider the following questions:

- What is freedom worth to you?
- What are the 4 basic freedoms every American has?
- What is the relationship between freedom and responsibility?
- How do we exercise freedom in our homes, at school and in our communities?
- Why is it important to be an informed and engaged citizen?
